Design of the College

THE Emerson College of Oratory, established in 1880, is the largest institution of its kind in the world. It is primarily a school for personal culture. It seeks to awaken in the student of expression, whether he aims to be a creative thinker or an interpreter, a realization of his own potentialities, and to give such direction to his training that he may attain them. While conserving the best traditions of the past, the college stands for thorough investigation, the most advanced educational methods, and the highest professional standards and ideals.

The work that Emerson College has done and is doing is unique. While it is called a College of Oratory, and while it emphasizes the teaching of the spoken word by careful scientific training in public speaking, it is also a school of belles-lettres, a school of physical training, and a school of pedagogy. It trains speakers and platform artists; it sends forth annually a large number of teachers to colleges and to normal and secondary schools in all parts of the United States and Canada.

The personal and literary culture afforded by the curriculum are of highest value, not only to those who have a professional end in view, but to men and women who do not intend to make oratory a specialty. It is self-evident that a strong personality, a cultured and noble manhood, is infinitely superior to any tricks of voice or gesture. When a man loves the truth and lives it, and can present it effectively to others, he has received the best possible preparation for the work of life as well as for the work of oratory. "The greatest thing in oratory is the orator."

Location

THE College is located at Huntington Chambers, on Huntington avenue, near Copley Square. It is easily accessible from all railroads leading into the city, and cars to all points pass close to its doors. Within a few minutes' walk of the Fens, the new Museum of Fine Arts, the new Opera House, the new Symphony Hall and the beautiful new hall of the Horticultural Society, and situated almost directly across the street from the Public Library, the college home is in the artistic and literary centre of Boston.

THE Emerson College has an excellent reference library. The books are carefully selected with a view to the needs of the students and the specialized work pursued. Students have access, free of charge, to the Boston Public Library, and its many branches. The Boston Art Museum is free to students. This contains a large number of rare and beautiful works of art by the great masters of sculpture and painting, and has a department of archæology and antiquities which has but few equals. The earnest student will find a liberal education in the literary, historic, and artistic advantages offered by Boston and vicinity, aside from the special benefit to be derived from a course pursued in any of its schools.

Requirements for Admission

APPLICANTS for admission are required to present two or more testimonials of good moral character from persons of recognized standing. They must present certificates of scholarship and standing from the schools most recently attended. In cases where the certificate is not presented, or is not conclusive evidence that the candidate has attained the standard prescribed, an entrance examination will be required.

Should the applicant be unable to present the required certificate, he may, nevertheless, at the discretion of the officers of the college, be admitted to the regular classes as a probationary student on the condition that his deficiencies be made up by extra study. Under no circumstances, however, will a student whose entrance requirements have not been made up be considered as eligible for graduation.

For admission to the Freshman Class as a regular student credentials must be presented from an accredited high school certifying to the equivalent of four years of work, equalling fifteen units. Applicants presenting fifteen units, as noted below, which is the minimum for admission, may enter the Freshman Class without examination; and if able to hold their grade during the first semester will be considered as regular members. Requirements for admission are

English 3	History 1
Languages 2	Science 1
Mathematics 2	Elective 6

Total 15

Students of maturity and ability who have not completed high school requirements, may, by outside study, complete not more than a year of high school work while pursuing the regular course, and, on presenting satisfactory evidence that all deficiencies have been made up, be permitted to graduate with their class.

Deficiencies in preparatory work may be made up under skilled instructors at reasonable rates, while the student is pursuing the regular courses of the college.

Requirements for Graduation

Degrees

An Act

To authorize the Emerson College of Oratory to grant the degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Section 1. The Emerson College of Oratory may grant the degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation to students properly accredited and recommended by a majority of its trustees; provided, however, that the course of instruction furnished by the corporation shall occupy not less than four years, and that no such degree shall be granted to any person who has not taken said full four years' course, or a course in some other institution of learning and in said Emerson College of Oratory, which a majority of said trustees shall consider the equivalent of said four years' course.

Requirements for Degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation.

Fifteen units of credit above the eighth grade of approved secondary school work are required for admission to college standing. A "unit of credit" represents at least four recitations per week for a school year of not less than thirty-two weeks.

Completion of the full college course of four years embracing the studies of the seven groups (see p. 18) including a minimum of 2,650 hours of classroom work is required of applicants for the degree.

Exchange of Courses with Boston University

An arrangement has been effected with the School of Education of Boston University by which students in either institution may have the advantage of certain courses in the curriculum of the other. This enables students of the Boston University School of Education to fulfil the conditions necessary to obtain from Emerson College the degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation, and enables students matriculating at Emerson College, who pursue a prescribed course of four years in both colleges, to receive from the Boston University the degree of Bachelor of Education.

Advanced Standing

Graduates of colleges of the first rank may be given credit for work previously accomplished, and thus be able to complete the course in two years.

Graduates of other schools of expression, and students who have pursued advanced courses in oratory and elocution, may also apply for advanced standing. In every instance the applicant is required to present credentials covering the work for which credit is asked, and may be required to submit to an examination before a committee of the faculty.

While it is desirable to take four years to complete the prescribed course, a student may by carrying extra class hours during his course, and by availing himself of the special Spring and Summer sessions complete the required work in three calendar years. Only students of maturity and exceptional ability will be permitted to undertake the extra work involved in so intensive a course of study.

Every applicant for a degree or diploma must complete at least two full years of work as a resident student of Emerson College.

Diploma of Graduation

Students who have completed a high school course, or its equivalent, and who have also completed the full course, embracing the studies of the seven groups, including a minimum of twenty-six hundred and fifty hours, and have passed satisfactory examinations are eligible to receive the Diploma of Graduation.

More liberal credits are allowed in advanced standing to candidates for the Diploma of Graduation than are permitted under the law appertaining to degrees.

The Professional Certificate

Students who do not desire to spend the time necessary to obtain the degree of "B. L. I." and who are not seeking the professional preparation of the teacher, or the broader academic and cultural work offered by the college, may become candidates for the "Professional Certificate." The course leading to this certificate is three years in length (2000 hours). Conditions for obtaining "advanced standing" are similar to those pertaining to the course leading to a diploma. Completion of a high school course or its equivalent will not be insisted upon as a prerequisite for a certificate. This course will be attractive to students who desire exclusive preparation for the lecture platform, the dramatic stage, and the various forms of public entertainment.

Special Students

Applicants who, instead of taking the regular prescribed courses for graduation, or for the Professional Certificate, desire to pursue elective studies as "special students" will be required to give evidence satisfactory to the faculty that they are qualified to sustain themselves in the classes which they desire to enter, and that they have attained a grade of scholarship equal to the average standing of the regular students in those classes. Special students are under the charge of a committee of the faculty, and are subject to all the regulations of the college.

Regulations

A DEFINITE educational purpose on the part of all students is assumed. The college traditions stand for moral responsibility and earnest co-operation. The regulations are few and fundamental. No student will be received who fails to submit satisfactory letters certifying to his moral character. Any student who neglects the work of his class, or shows that he has no proper appreciation of his opportunities, or whose presence and influence are harmful to the institution, may be excluded at any time from the work of the college. In case of required withdrawal, no money will be refunded.

Both regular and special students are under charge of a Committee of the Faculty. Each student is under the particular supervision of a member of this committee, who acts as his adviser. All students while pursuing courses at the institution are required to comply with such fundamental rules for their government as may be prescribed by the Officers of Supervision.

Every Freshman and special student, upon entering, is required to matriculate and submit his choice of studies to his Adviser, under whose general supervision his work is to be carried on.

After registration, which is required of all students at the beginning of each scholastic year, each student must submit his registration slip to the Treasurer and pay his tuition, or give satisfactory security for the payment of his term dues. He will then receive a card admitting him to a given course. Students will not receive instruction until they have secured these cards. Tuition paid for instruction, which a student, because of illness, has not received, will stand to the credit of said student until he is able to return and re-enter the classes. No money will be refunded except in cases of twelve months' illness.

Conferences between the Dean and representatives chosen by the several classes will be arranged each term, in order that matters of interest to the classes may be brought formally or informally before the officers of the college for consideration, and the heartiest co-operation secured between the student body and the Faculty.

General examinations of all pupils are held at the end of each half-year by members of the Faculty in each department. A careful record of the progress of each pupil is kept, and, together with the examinations, determines the standing of the pupil for promotion or graduation.

Presence at morning chapel exercises is required of all students in the regular course.

Students are required to be prompt and regular in their attendance upon all classes in the courses upon which they have entered. Absence from class must be satisfactorily explained to the teacher in charge. A record of attendance will be kept, and lost lessons must be made up. It is hoped that parents and guardians will concur with the Faculty in their opinion of the inexpediency of granting leave of absence except for extraordinary reasons.

All matters of college business must be arranged at the office and not with teachers.

No regular students are permitted to take work in or visit classes in advance of those in which they are graded.

Students who desire medical advice should apply at the office where they will be directed to reliable doctors for consultation.

Patrons and friends of the school are cordially welcomed. They must register at the office, however, before being admitted into the classes. Students are not permitted to take visitors into classes and recitations, but are required in all cases to introduce them at the office, whence they will be conducted to classes, and be shown every courtesy.

From the courses of each year each applicant for a degree or for the Professional and Teacher's Diploma will elect twenty periods of work each week. None of these courses will be given unless elected by five or more students.

Read carefully Requirements for Admission and Requirements for Graduation, pages 11-13. The regular work of the College leading to a degree or to the Professional and Teacher's Diploma demands of each student a minimum of at least twenty-six hundred hours of class work.

A course of fifty private and individual lessons is given to each candidate for a degree or for the Professional and Teacher's Diploma who is during four years a resident student.

The Curriculum

THE methods of instruction of Emerson College differ fundamentally from those usually employed in teaching oratory. While many methods work for simulation of power, this method develops real power by cultivating those qualities of mind and heart which lie behind all expression, and which spontaneously create its requisite artistic forms.

There are seven general groups of studies, including about eighty courses, which may be designated as follows:

I. ORATORY
Public Speaking; Story Telling; Argumentation; Debate.

II. VOICE TRAINING
Voice Technique; Tone Expression; Vocal Physiology; Acoustics; Assembly Singing.

III. LITERARY INTERPRETATION
Evolution of Expression; Prose Forms and Poetic Interpretation; Critical Analysis.

IV. DRAMATIC AND PLATFORM ART
Shakespeare; The Poetic Drama; Practical Dramatic Training; Writing of Plays.

V. PHYSICAL TRAINING.
Anatomy; Physiology; Gymnastics; Expressive Physical Culture; Gesture.

VI. LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE
English Literature, Rhetoric and Composition.

VII. PEDAGOGY
Normal Training; Psychology; Logic; Philosophy.

The distribution of studies in the order of years will be seen in the following pages.

Class discussion and criticism of the plays written by students of the course. Conferences.

(b) Practice. Two pieces of work will be required from each member of the class: an adaptation in one act, and a one act original play.

This course will be limited to ten members. All applicants must submit an original play to Prof. Walter B. Tripp by August 1, 1921. All who take this course will be expected to take "IV-7, Practical Dramatic Training," or "IV-8, Dramatic Art," and "VI-1 History of the English Drama." [Third and fourth years.]

14. The Children's Theatre course in Production of Children's Plays includes adaptation of plays, coaching, designing, costumes, and study of children's plays. Correlates with writing of Plays, IV, 13, and Story Telling 1, 8. Open to Senior Class.

The Children's Theatre Company (from which actors for the plays are drawn) is open to all students of the college. This year the Company has had one hundred and fifty members and has produced over thirty-five plays in a period of twenty-five consecutive weeks. All performances have been under the supervision of the Senior Class. The Theatre plays each Saturday to a paid audience of from two to four hundred children, and enjoys the distinction of being the only Children's Theatre in this country with a weekly change of program.

Dramatic study is given a prominent place in the work of the Emerson College because of its eminent value as a means of personal culture; because it cultivates the imagination, which is the mother of all art; because it broadens the sympathy, which is the inspiration of all true teachings; because it nurtures that sense of beauty which refines the character.

The development of the dramatic element and its place in education, together with its relation to character-building, are discussed, and plays are studied in their twofold relation as dramatic art and as literature. Pupils are not only given practical stage training, but, as prospective teachers are taught how to produce and stage plays and entertainments of all kinds. The annual public presentation of plays provides special training and further advantages.

v. Physical Training

DR. ALDEN, MRS. WILLARD, MRS. PUFFER, MISS SMITH, MISS RIDDELL

1. Anatomy. The skeleton and its articulations; muscular system; applied law of muscular activity as related to physical training. [First year.]

2. Physiology. The circulatory system; digestion; nervous system; lectures in hygiene. [Second year.]

3. Expressive Physical Culture. Exercises for poise, presence, and bearing, for grace and ease of manner, for the vital organs, for strengthening the centres while freeing the surfaces. Physical training in its relation to health and beauty; psycho-physical culture; harmonic movements; marching. [First year.]

4. Measurements; chest development; breathing exercises; personal hygiene. Exercises, and their effect upon the circulation of the blood and the nervous system. The Four Divisions of the Emerson Exercises in their relation to unity and expression. Ease in force; theory and practice; exercises for the vital organs. [Second year.]

5. Normal work. [Third year.]

6.* Aesthetic Dancing. Exercises in the fundamental positions. Harmonizing movements. Simple dances. [Second year.]

7.† Fundamentals of Physical Training. Talks and demonstrations on the principles and aims of gymnastics; the study of the various classes of exercises, their mechanics and progression, their physical, psychological and physiological effects. Personal hygiene, including health as a problem in vital economics; changes in the organism due to evolution and civilization, and the health problems arising therefrom; conditions necessary to the perfect state of the body and the activity of its various functions; causes of weakness, injury, degeneration, and disease; improvement of health and prevention of disease by hygienic means. Also practice of educational gymnastics, marching, games, etc., as in 8. [Second year.]

*Advanced Aesthetic and Folk Dancing in Special classes.

†Although Educational Gymnastics will form the basis of this course, other branches of physical training will be discussed in order that the pupil may acquire an intelligent conception of the correct place of every kind of gymnastic movement in an ideal scheme of physical education. While a student is furnished with a sound knowledge, his spontaneity, individuality and personal power are cultivated.

8.‡ Theory of and practice in the taking of measurements and the plotting out of charts; methods of teaching; construction and equipment of a gymnasium. Practice of educational gymnastics, including marching, tactics, free standing and apparatus movements, with practical application of the laws of progression; gymnastic games, including basketball. [Third year.]

9. Fencing. [Fourth year.]

10. Elementary Gesture. Physical exercises as a preparation for spontaneous gesture; responsive drill to establish ready co-ordination of mind and muscle; the distinction between the gesture of spontaneity and that of calculation; the physiology of gesture; the psychology of gesture. Philosophy and technique of gesture. The Delsarte criteria of gesture. [Second year.]

The translation of gesture at sight. Class and individual drill. The Art of Gesture. Analysis of the three kinds of gesture: descriptive, sympathetic or objectively-emotional, subjectively-emotional. The study of gesture in relation to the forms of literature classified according to their dramatic significance in oral interpretation. Rendering of selections, with criticism given especially to the gesture. [Third year.]

The Gymnasium Hall is fitted up with Swedish and German apparatus, and also with chest-weights, dumb-bells, wands and Indian clubs, etc., all the apparatus being arranged so that the floor can be cleared in a few minutes. There are toilet-rooms, bath-rooms, and dressing-rooms supplied with lockers.

‡In this course, thorough scientific training will be given, fitting students to present the work in normal and high school gymnasiums. Physical examination records will be taken in order that exercises may be prescribed for the needs of each student. Gymnasium suits and shoes will be required. These can be procured at several of the Boston shops where a special reduction is made to Emerson students.

VI. Language and Literature

4. *Psychology; Logic. [Second year.]

5. Ethics; Manners; Personal Development. [Third year.]

* Course 4 aims at giving the student a good elementary knowledge of empirical psychology from a thoroughly modern point of view. In the exposition of the subject the natural order of psychological development is followed, the various elements of the mental process being simply described and explained; and their relation to each other and function in the formation and growth of consciousness are shown. The psychological method pursued is that advocated and made use of by such representative psychologists as James, Royce, and others.

The Saturday Course

IN ADDITION to the regular work upon Saturdays, special classes are arranged for those who cannot attend the college on other days. The course includes training for the voice and body, the principles of reading and delivery, and methods of teaching. Work is given for clergymen, lawyers, teachers and students of other schools. There is also a special Children's class on Saturday mornings.

Evening Classes

Evening classes in Vocal and Physical Training, Reading, Oratory, Extemporaneous Speaking and Shakespeare, will be organized November 1, and continued for twenty weeks. Courses will be progressive, and credit for work accomplished will be given members who enter the regular college course.

This course is designed to meet the needs of business men, lawyers, teachers and others who cannot attend the day sessions.

Summer Sessions

BOSTON
SIX WEEKS
BEGINNING JULY 5

MONTEAGLE, TENN.
FIVE WEEKS
BEGINNING JULY 18

PRESIDENT SOUTHWICK, MR. TRIPP, MRS. SOUTHWICK, MISS SMITH, MR. McCABE AND ASSISTANTS

THE object of the summer session is to give an opportunity to professors, students, and teachers in public schools to become familiar with the principles of voice culture, gesture, and analysis as taught in this college. It affords teachers of elocution an opportunity for the discussion of subjects of interest to them, while ministers and all professional students gain much in knowledge of the powerful and effective use of the voice.

Credit for work done in the summer sessions will be allowed to students who enter the regular courses of the college.

Advanced classes will be organized, and studies so arranged that those who attend during successive summers may follow progressive courses and enter upon new work from year to year.

Boston is a Mecca for summer visitors; its places of historic interest its libraries and museums, its literary associations, its beautiful suburbs, its refreshing sea breezes, and the varied attractions of its harbor excursions bring thousands of pilgrims from all parts of the country. Students attending the Summer Session and desiring to study music will find abundant opportunity to secure such instruction in private or class work.

The Monteagle Session will be held under the auspices of the Monteagle Assembly and Summer Schools at Monteagle, Tenn. Monteagle is one of the famous resorts of the South, easy of access from Nashville and from Chattanooga. The grounds are upon a mountain top, 2,200 feet above sea level. The locality is rich in historic interest. The nights are cool, even in midsummer, the mountain air of the purest. Epidemics, hay fever and malaria are unknown and all conditions are mostly favorable for summer study. Monteagle Assembly offers a morning and evening program daily, affording opportunities of recreation, instruction and inspiration in its concerts, lectures and recitals.

For further information respecting the summer sessions, address the Dean.

Methods of Instruction

Class

WHILE in music and many other studies private teaching obtains the best results, in the study of oratory many years of experience have demonstrated that much better and more rapid results are obtained in class than in private instruction. Oratory is essentially a social matter, and can never be acquired in solitude.

All the drill work of the college is given in small classes, so that, notwithstanding the size of the institution, such is the number of its instructors and class-rooms, and such is the arrangement of its courses, that each student has the benefit of as much individual attention as could be afforded by a small school of inferior equipment, and, moreover, enjoys the advantage of work with the large staff of able specialists.

While Emerson College is the largest institution of its kind in the world, each pupil receives the instruction best fitted to meet his particular needs. The individual and not the class is the unit.

Written examinations and other tests of proficiency will be given in all subjects at the end of each year, and, in most departments, during each term.

Private

Each four-year student who is a candidate for the Degree or Diploma of Graduation will receive, in addition to class instruction, fifty private and individual lessons. These will be given at such times and upon such subjects as, on consultation with the Faculty Advisers, are found most largely helpful to the personal development of the student. This special and personal teaching is not extra, but is included in the tuition of the courses. Thus the students have all the advantages of both class and private instruction. No lesson lost through non-payment of the term tuition, absence, or failure to keep appointment will be made up.

Recitals*

RECITALS are held regularly every week during the entire course, the students of all classes reciting from their repertoire before their classmates. This work is in charge of the Faculty, and is designed to test the progress of the student in the regular class-work and to afford additional opportunities for platform practice. Members of the third and fourth year classes give their recitals before audiences of several hundred. In these public performances they gain confidence in themselves, and actual experience in appearing before and entertaining large gatherings.

Readers and Lecturers

GRADUATES are very prominent before the public as readers and lecturers. At least fifty, during the last season, have been given leading places in the companies under the management of the entertainment bureaus of this and other large cities.

Managers of Lyceums, concerts and lectures, may secure the services of lecturers and readers on application to the Dean. The constant demand for readers in the city and vicinity gives opportunities for practice to properly qualified students.

Teachers

EMERSON COLLEGE graduates are teaching in leading institutions in all parts of the United States and Canada. During the past year many positions in high and normal schools, seminaries, academies and colleges have been filled by graduates of Emerson College.

The call for trained teachers in expressional English is increasing, and a most gratifying answer is thus made to the higher requirements for admission and the severer work required during the course.

Agencies and institutions desiring teachers will be put in communication with eligible candidates on application to the Dean.

College Activities

ONE of the strong influences of the college is the Young Women's Christian Association. The object of this Association is to develop Christian character and to accomplish active Christian work. Devotional meetings are held on Friday at 2 p.m. each week at the college. Prominent pastors and other religious workers speak at these meetings; there is also an opportunity to hear good music. The Association gladly welcomes all new students and wishes to be of service to each.

The Emerson College Dramatic Club was organized to create higher artistic standards for school and college dramatics, and to form a nucleus for organizations for out-of-door and in-door plays for lyceum, chautauqua and college entertainment.

A Canadian Club, a Southern Club, and several state and local organizations, serve to draw students of various localities into closer union.

The Emerson College Quarterly

THE Emerson College Quarterly is issued by the Magazine Association. Its general purpose is to raise the standard of instruction in oratory throughout the country by bringing it into line with the most approved pedagogical methods. It also aims to elevate the literary character of the reading-platform, so that recitals shall become recognized as a vital interpretation of our best English and American authors. It publishes contributions from teachers, authors, graduates and friends of the institution; criticisms of standard and current literature, especially that suitable for platform work; and news of interest in and about the college. Four numbers are issued during each scholastic year.

Cost of Instruction

THE scholastic year is divided into two semesters of sixteen weeks each

Cost of each semester of attendance. (twenty periods per week)	$90.00
*Extra periods beyond the twenty required of regular students, per year	10.00
Pupils on Saturdays only, during the year	50.00
Evening School	30.00 to 50.00
Boston Summer School	35.00
Spring Session	25.00
Diploma or Certificate fee	10.00
Extra examination fee	2.00
Gymnasium (elective course)	5.00
†Incidental Fee, including subscription to the College Quarterly and admission to general lectures, and to the annual course of evening recitals by leading platform artists.	5.00

No member of the college may receive any private instruction unless his term bills have been paid. Lessons lost through delay in the payment of tuition, sickness or absence of the pupil will not be made up.

There are no fees but those mentioned in "Cost of Instruction." All books and stationery may be purchased at the college.

Tuition must be paid in advance. Students are not allowed to remain in classes when term bills are not paid promptly. No tuition will be refunded except in case of twelve months' sickness.

*A "Period" is one recitation per week for the school year.

†The Incidental Fee is required of all students, regular and special.

College Residences

The Emerson College Residences, Southwick, Ross, Willard, and Hicks Halls, are located on Commonwealth Ave., Beacon and Newbury Streets, in the best residential section of the Back Bay. In these homes students enjoy all the pleasures and privileges of college life under the protection of a well-regulated home; a resident matron being in charge. The prices of room and board vary from $365 to $504 for a period of thirty-two weeks. An extra charge for board will be made for students remaining in the dormitories during the Christmas and spring vacations. These charges include all expenses for furniture in room; heat; light; and one pair of blankets, but do not include rugs; open fires; laundry; and lunches from Monday to Saturday. There is a tea room in the college building where lunches may be purchased during the week. Towels, and bed linen for single beds, puffs, or extra blankets must be provided by the student. Board and room rent are payable quarterly eight weeks in advance.

The student may not come to the dormitories before the Saturday previous to registration day as fixed by the college catalogue, (page 8). The first dinner will be served on Saturday night. Applications will be filed in the order of their receipt. Assignments will be made during the month of June, but applications will be considered later as vacancies may occur.

Every application must be accompanied by a ten dollar ($10) deposit; otherwise it will not be registered. If application is not accepted the amount of deposit will be refunded. Reservation fee will not be refunded to a student to whom an assignment has been made, unless notice of withdrawal is given to the college before August 15. Any applicant giving up her assignment later than September 1st will be held responsible for the reservation for the first quarter. Any student withdrawing after the opening of the college year will be held responsible for the payment for room and board for the remainder of the first semester. Students who are obliged to withdraw should notify the college office at once. The reservation will be sub-let, if possible, in which case the student who has withdrawn will not thereafter be held responsible.

THE Emerson College Alumni Association formed in 1889, holds annual meetings, and has already laid the foundation of an endowment fund, secured the publication of the Magazine; and its members have in various ways helped to extend the influence of their Alma Mater.

Association meetings, with reception and banquet, are held in Boston each year in connection with the graduation exercises. The date for 1922 will be May 17.

Alumni meetings are held frequently at the college, and members of the association are invited to visit regular classes which may be in session before the hour of the meeting.

It is desired that information concerning past members of the college be sent to the Registrar of the Emerson College. Graduates and former students are requested to send him immediate notification of any change of address. A copy of the Annual Catalogue will be sent to any addresses furnished for this purpose.

CHARLES WINSLOW KIDDER, Registrar,
Emerson College of Oratory.

Alumni Clubs

LOCAL Alumni Clubs have been organized in various sections of the country to keep alumni and former students in closer touch with the College, and to promote its welfare.

Regular meetings are held by all these clubs, and all former students in the vicinity are urged to attend.

The members of these organizations may be applied to at any time for personal information concerning the College and its work. The addresses of two members of each organization are given to aid any who seek information concerning the Club or the College.

In order of formation the clubs are: —

1. Emerson College Club of Hartford
   Mrs. Claire Plummer Dresser, 276 Edgewood St., Hartford, Ct.
   Miss Bernice Loveland, Highland Court, Hartford, Ct.

2. Emerson Club of Boston
